CONDENSED NEWS,

Gathered From All Parts of the Country by Telegraph.

The Allis won the yacht race for the Grand Prix de Nice, which was sailed Monday. The Britannia was second and the Santanita third.

The ice went out of Black lake into Lake Michigan Sunday night and navigation is open at Holland, Mich. Steamers and schooners are fitting out.

Mrs. Elizabeth Charles, author of "The Chronicles of the Schenck-Cotta Family," "The Martyrs of Spain," and a number of other works, died at Hampstead, Eng., Sunday.

George E. Dowling, aged 56 years, a wealthy banker and one of Michigan's most prominent lumber kings, died at Montague Monday morning of heart failure. Mr. Dowling was Past Grand Master of Michigan Masons.

It is reported that Home Secretary Sir M. W. Ridley has determined to shortly order the release of the prisoners now confined in British prisons for participation in dynamite outrages.

The London Chronicle Monday says that Baron Russell, of Killowen, lord chief justice of England, will visit the United States in September to attend the conference of jurists at Saratoga.

The post office department was Monday advised of the arrest at Chicago of Postal Clerk T. C. Brownell, whose run is on the Chicago & Minneapolis railroad, for alleged tampering with the mails.

John Rech, the suspected murderer of his wife at the hamlet of Estellville, Pa., was arrested Sunday morning. It is said that Rech has made a full confession that he killed his wife, but the police refuse to affirm or deny this.

The London Times Monday, commenting on the situation in France, says there is no difficulty in seeing that misconceptions of Egyptian affairs are being extensively used in Paris as weapons in purely domestic struggles.

The Harrison elevator at Burlington, Ia., was burned Monday morning. It was owned by the National Linseed Oil Co. The loss on building and the grain stored therein is estimated at from $40,000 to $50,000; insurance $25,700.

The Glenmore worsted mills, Philadelphia, were destroyed by fire. The loss on stock and machinery was $195,000, on which there is an insurance of $140,000. The loss on building is about $40,000, on which the insurance is not known. Three hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

In the issue of Monday the London Chronicle denounces the demand that is growing in certain English newspapers in favor of sending a powerful expedition to South Africa. The Chronicle ascribed the demand to an anti-Boer propaganda that is being pushed by a ring of capitalists.
